PATH to PROSPERITY

YOU CAN BE AN ENTREPRENEUR!

A New Business Competition for Southeast Alaska Entrepreneurs

Learn more and submit an application online at:

www.P2Pweb.org

Informational meeting at Wrangell Nolan Center on Friday, May 16th at 12:00 p.m.

Interested in applying? Come find out more about the competition and get answers to your questions. This short meeting is open to the community. Light snacks will be served.

Why Path to Prosperity?

The competition aims to support business ideas in SE that will increase local employment, have a positive social and economic impact on their communities, and promote sustainable use of local resources. P2P will also increase entrepreneurial skills and business leadership in Southeast.

Important Dates and Deadlines

P2P information webinar - Tuesday April 8, 2014, at 5:30 p.m.
Application deadline - Friday May 30, 2014 at 5:00 p.m.
P2P 1st Round semi-finalists announced - Monday July 7, 2014

Who is Eligible?

P2P is open to individuals, for-profit businesses or tribal entities. Business ideas may include a new business or an expansion of an existing business. Applicants must be southeast Alaska residents.

Winners

Twelve semi-finalists will receive a scholarship from UAS School of Managment, attend a weekend boot camp in Juneau, and receive technical assistance in writing a business plan. Three business plans will be selected as finalists and each will receive an award of up to $40,000 for consulting and technical services to develop the business.

Questions on Path to Prosperity?

For questions or more information please email Shawn Blumenshine or Alana Peterson at P2P@Sealaska.com or call (907)586-9251.

HAA AANÍ

The Nature Conservancy

Path to Prosperity: A business development competition created to enhance the entrepreneurship capacity in coastal and underserved communities, using the innovation and buiness capacity of Southeast Alaska.
For additional information, please visit www.P2Pweb.org.